Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

Claims 1-3,5-7,9-14,16-21 and 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brooker, et al.-6269810.

Brooker discloses a pulmonary aerosol dosing system having a means for providing patient parameters and means for adjusting the system to deliver the doses according to the providing means. A keyboard is used to input patient specific data which is read by a control means which acts to adjust the system to deliver the proper doses to the patient according to the patient specific data. See col. 4 lines 41-42; col. 7 lines 33-48; col. 12 lines 43-64; col. 13 lines 3-60; col. 14 lines 41-42; col. 15 lines 3-5 and col. 19 lines 19-37.

Claims 1-4,6-22,24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Willemot, et al.-5560353.

Willemot discloses an aerosol dosing system having a means for providing patient parameters and means for adjusting the system to deliver the doses according to the providing means. A keyboard is used to input patient specific data into a memory card which is read by a control means which acts to adjust the system to deliver the proper doses to the patient according to the patient specific data. See col. 2 lines 35-64, col. 3 lines 7-36.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
